

By-Laws
of
The Mediators' Institute of Ireland

As approved at the EGM of 5th September 2009, Amended at the AGM of 16th November 2012, the AGM of 8th November 2013 and the EGM of 30th May 2017 and further Amended at the AGM of 16th October 2020, the AGM of 1st December 2022 and the AGM of 7th December 2023.

General

1. These By-Laws shall remain in full force and effect and may be changed only by the Members in General Meeting in accordance with the Memorandum and Articles of Association.
2. Any form, paper, proposal form, ballot paper, application, notification, letter referred to in these By-Laws shall be in the form prescribed from time to time by the Council and may include electronic formats.

Council

3. The number of Council members shall be 22 of whom 20 shall be elected by the members entitled to vote.
4. The Council shall consist of the Executive Committee and Ordinary Council Members. The Executive Committee shall comprise of the President, the President Elect, the Honorary Secretary, the Honorary Treasurer, the Registrar and the Chairpersons of the three Standing Committees. During the first year of his/her office a President may, at their sole discretion, request the previous President to attend and contribute to meetings of the Executive Committee.
5. 2 places on Council may be filled by co-option at the discretion of Council. Any person co-opted shall retire at the next AGM but may then be eligible for election. In exercising their right of co-option the Council shall have regard to the knowledge, practice and expertise of the members on Council so that the Council is as widely representative as possible of all areas of mediation.

Proceedings of Council

6. The quorum for Council meetings shall be 8 Council members.
7. The number of Council meetings shall be no fewer than four in any calendar year.
8. Council meetings may be held electronically (in all or in part) and Council members may attend by conference telephone call or other electronic means and the minutes of the meeting shall show the type of attendance.
9. The Council members shall at the first Council meeting of each year review the Standing Orders.
10. All questions of Council shall be decided by open voting.
11. Each member present shall have a vote. In the event of a tie, the President or chairperson of the meeting shall have a casting vote.
12. If a Council Member cannot attend a meeting he or she may give to the President or the chairperson of the meeting their proxy in writing to vote in a particular way on an issue or to cast the vote as the President or chairperson thinks fit.
13. The Council shall have authority to take and execute all decisions including policy decisions which in its opinion are necessary to advance the objectives of the Institute.
14. Any policy decisions so made shall be brought on notice before the next Annual General Meeting of the Company for ratification by the Members. In the event of ratification being withheld at the Annual General Meeting, such failure to ratify shall not apply retrospectively to any action taken by the Council.

Committees

15. The Council shall establish three Standing Committees namely, the Accreditation Policy Committee, Ethics and Standards Committee and Governance, Audit and Risk Committee. In addition, the Council may establish such other committees as the Council determines. All committees established by Council shall be chaired by a member of the Council.
16. The rights and duties and delegated functions of the committees shall be established by the Council from time to time.

17. The membership of the committees may be comprised of Council Members, the Members and non-members. The membership of each Committee shall be agreed by the Council.
18. The committees shall report to Council as prescribed by Council from time to time.
19. Each Committee shall at its first meeting in each year establish Standing Orders in relation to notice of meetings to be given, agendas, minutes and circulation of documents.
20. A report by the chairperson of each committee shall be made to each Council meeting and to the members at the Annual General Meeting.
21. At the first meeting after the AGM in each year the Council shall appoint one Council member to be responsible for the Commercial Sector; Community Sector; Family Sector; Organisation and Workplace Sector; Restorative Practice Sector, Education Sector, Agriculture Sector, Elder Mediation Sector and Peacebuilding Sector.
22. The Council may from time to time appoint one or more Council members to be responsible for possible new sectors.

Declarations of Interest

23. Each year each member of Council and each member of any committee shall declare whether or not they have any interest that might give rise to a conflict of interest either on the Council or on a particular committee.
24. It shall be the responsibility of the President and of the chairperson of each committee to obtain the declarations from each member and transmit them to the Honorary Secretary.
25. The Honorary Secretary shall maintain a register of the declarations of interest which shall be available for inspection by the Members.
26. If during the period of the year a potential conflict arises for any member of a committee they shall immediately inform the chairperson of the committee and excuse themselves from the discussion and from the voting. The chairperson of the meeting may, at their sole discretion, allow the conflicted member to remain and/ or to contribute to the discussion.

Confidentiality

27. All the proceedings of the Council and any of its committees are confidential to Council members. If appropriate the chairperson at each Council or Committee meeting shall determine what information may be given to members of the institute or otherwise.

Membership

28. The different categories of membership are laid down by the Memorandum and Articles of Association.

29. The Council may from time to time decide further categories of membership.

30. The Council may from time to time decide the criteria for membership in each category.

31. The Council may from time to time specify different criteria for membership for different Sectors.

Applications for Membership

32. All applications for membership with the exception of Honorary Members as prescribed by the council from time to time shall be submitted to the Registrar with the appropriate fee in the manner prescribed by the Council from time to time.

33. The Registrar shall cause the application to be reviewed and on being satisfied that all of the criteria and formalities have been met shall cause the member to be registered in the appropriate category of membership.

34. Where an applicant for membership is dissatisfied at the category of membership in which they have been registered or if they have been refused registration they may appeal the decision in accordance with the appeals procedure for the time being available from the Honorary Secretary or on the Institute website.

Membership Subscriptions.

35. The Membership is annual and runs from 1st January in each year.

36. The Annual Subscription and Administration Fees shall be agreed by Council.
37. The Annual Subscription is payable before 31st January in each year.
38. Membership is personal to the individual and they are liable for the subscription.
39. Where any Member has not paid their Annual Subscription by 1st February in any year, they shall be deemed no longer to be a Member and shall be notified accordingly. If they pay their Annual Subscription in that year they will automatically be readmitted to Membership. In any other circumstances the Member will have to reapply for Membership.
40. A member of Council who has not paid their subscription by 1st February in any year shall be deemed to be removed from the Council and their seat become vacant.
41. Once the Annual Subscription has been paid, the Honorary Secretary will issue a Membership Certificate as appropriate. Details of those with Membership Certificates will be contained in a Register which will be available for inspection by the members and by the public. The Honorary Secretary is responsible for the upkeep of the register.

Accreditation Standards Training and Criteria

42. The Council shall from time to time determine the standards, criteria and the professional training for accreditation of MII Mediators.
43. The Accreditation Policy Committee role is to recommend to Council from time to time courses for suitable training for accreditation and the criteria for membership of the Institute and the regular review of courses in accordance with By-Law 46.
44. The chairperson of this committee shall be entitled The Accreditation Director and shall be a currently practising Advanced Member and an Officer of the Council.
45. The Committee will establish procedures for the approval process of courses and criteria and in so doing will be minded of best professional practice. The then current processes and criteria shall be kept in a register available to members and to the public.
46. The Council shall either provide and/or approve training courses and/or trainers for Member status and Advanced Member status.

47. Where the Institute is providing a training course for accreditation, the content and the training provider shall be assessed by an independent third party assessor and any course shall be reviewed by an independent assessor periodically as set out in Bye-law 48.
48. Where the Council has approved a training course and / or a training provider for accreditation run by a third party, the content and delivery of that course shall be reviewed and audited from time to time and subject to a formal audit every three years or such other frequency as may be set by Council.
49. A condition of approval of a training course is that the content, duration and minimum and maximum class size shall not change without the prior written approval of the Council. It will be a further condition that trainee evaluations will be sent directly by the trainees to the Accreditation Director and the accreditation Director or someone with their authority may attend all or part of the course for the purposes of assessment.
50. Where the Council provides and/or approves a training course and/or trainer it will issue a Certificate of Approval and details of the course and/or trainer shall be inserted in the register. The register shall be available for inspection by the members and the public.
51. Those responsible for Approved Training Courses will keep the Institute informed of changes from time to time in course fees and these together with details as to how to apply to attend the course will be contained in the register of courses.
52. The Accreditation Director is responsible for the maintenance and upkeep of the Approved Training Courses Register.
53. The Council shall decide from time to time the procedure to be adopted by those seeking approval of training courses and/or trainers and details of the procedure shall be contained in the register and be available to members and to the public.
54. The Council may prescribe different standards and different criteria in different Sectors from time to time. The criteria will be reviewed and developed from time to time and any amendments will be subject to the approval of Council. The policy is that accreditation is as a Mediator and is not limited to any sector and the Council shall decide on transitional provisions to effect this.
55. If as part of the accreditation criteria a candidate is required to have a Practice Consultant or Practice Supervisor the Council may prescribe conditions such as qualifications and experience of the Practice Consultant and details of these and of those qualified will be kept in a register maintained for this purpose. The Accreditation Director is responsible for the upkeep of this register which will be available to members and to the public.

Registration

56. The Council may establish a committee entitled the Registration Committee and the chairperson of this committee shall be called the Registrar who shall be an Officer of the Council.
57. The Committee shall from time to time recommend to the Council procedures for applications for accreditation to the Institute and in so doing will be minded of best professional practice. They shall establish transitional procedures for times when the Council has changed the requirements.
58. The Council shall from time to time agree the procedures to be adopted in relation to applications for accreditation and these shall be contained in a register available to members and to the public.
59. The committee shall arrange for the assessment of candidates for accreditation and in so doing shall apply the standards approved from time to time by the Council.
60. The names and dates of candidates who have achieved accreditation shall be maintained in a register which is available for inspection by members and by the public.
61. The Registrar shall be responsible for the registration of and communications with the sharing and learning groups and Council.

Further Education

62. The Council is mindful of its obligation to provide further education on mediation not only to its members but to the public at large.
63. Any committee may make recommendation to the Council for the provision of further education for its members.

Continuing Professional Development

64. The Council shall provide and/or approve Continuing Professional Development (CPD) courses and shall establish a committee to put this into effect.

65. The Council shall decide from time to time the CPD requirements for Members and Advanced Members to continue to be recognised as members in practice.
66. A Member not completing the then required CPD standard shall not receive a Membership Certificate until the training has been completed.

Accounts

67. The Council shall cause proper books of accounts to be kept relating to
- a. All sums of money received and expended by the Institute and the matters in respect of which the receipt and expenditure takes place;
 - b. All sales and purchases of goods by the Institute and
 - c. The assets and liabilities of the Institute.
68. The Accounts and books of account of the Institute shall be kept by the honorary Treasurer and subject to reasonable restrictions as to time and manner of inspection shall be available for inspection by a fully paid- up member.
69. The Council shall from time to time in accordance with the Companies Acts 2014 cause to be prepared and to be laid before the Annual General Meeting of the Institute such income and expenditure accounts, balance sheets, and reports as are required by statute.
70. A copy of every Balance sheet including every document required by law to be annexed to it together with a copy of the Council's Report and Auditor's Report shall not less than 21 days before the date of the Annual General Meeting be made available electronically or otherwise, to every person entitled to them.

Registers

71. Where under these By-Laws a register is to be kept it is sufficient for it to be kept on the website with access to the public, where appropriate. Hard copies will also be available in appropriate formats.
72. The Honorary Secretary shall be responsible to ensure that the registers required by these By-Laws are established and maintained up to date in the various formats.

Ethics and Standards

73. The Council will establish a committee entitled the Ethics and Standards Committee. The Committee will advise Council on the professional and ethical standards to be espoused by members. The committee will also advise council on procedures in relation to the proper conduct of a member of the MII, any such procedures are to be approved by Council.

The Council of the MII will publish documents relating to the application process to become a member and the proper conduct of members of the MII. These documents may include but not limited to the following; Code of Conduct and Ethics, Complaints Appeals and Disciplinary Procedures, Membership application criteria. The Council may amend these documents from time to time on the advice of the Ethics and Standards Committee.

Notices

74. Any notice to be sent under these By-Laws may be sent by post, by fax or electronically to the last known address of the member.
75. It is the duty of each member to keep the Honorary Secretary informed of their up-to-date contact information.

Duties of the President

76. The President shall be the spokesperson for the Institute and shall use his/her reasonable endeavours to promote the Institute and the use of mediation.
77. In addition to any duties prescribed by the Articles or by these By-Laws, the President shall take cognisance of all matters and occurrences affecting the general welfare of the profession from time to time and shall summon Council to consider the same or shall personally take such action thereon as the President shall deem expedient in the interests of the profession as the occasion or emergency may suggest and report such action to the Council at its next meeting.

Duties of the Honorary Secretary

78. In addition to any duties prescribed by law or in the Articles or by these By-Laws, the Honorary Secretary shall be responsible for ensuring the taking of minutes at every meeting of the Institute or of the Council and shall cause those minutes to be signed when agreed and entered into the minute books.

Duties of the Honorary Treasurer

79. The Honorary Treasurer shall receive all monies belonging to the Institute which shall be lodged in a bank to be approved by the Council to an account or accounts in the Institute's name.
80. The Council shall from time to time agree on the delegated powers to the Honorary Treasurer and others to withdraw funds, expend funds and invest funds.
81. The Honorary Treasurer shall in December of each year cause a budget to be prepared for the following year and shall present to each meeting of Council a report detailing current income and expenditure as against budget and such other information as the council shall require.

General Meetings and Voting

82. The quorum at General Meetings shall be 30 fully paid- up Members in person or by proxy.
83. All members are entitled to attend the Annual General meeting and any EGM and all members are entitled to one vote.

Elections

84. The election process for the President, President-elect and Council shall commence with a call for written nominations with a deadline set by Council.
85. Candidates shall be proposed and seconded in writing by eligible members. Members will be given no less than a two week period in which to nominate candidates.
86. A candidate may not nominate themselves.

87. Candidates for election to Council, their proposers and seconders must at the time of proposing or seconding be a current member entitled to vote or such other category as agreed by Council from time to time.
88. A candidate for Council shall have been a member of the MII for at least 12 months as at the date of the close of nominations.
89. A candidate for the position of President shall have been a member of Council for at least one year as at the date of the close of nominations and must hold a current Advanced Membership Certificate. They do not have to be a currently serving Council member.
90. Presidential and President–Elect candidates shall also automatically be included in the general Council nominations.
91. The President shall be elected by the members for a three year period. Should the position of President become vacant at a time when a President-Elect has yet to be elected, then a fresh election for President shall be held by way of an Extraordinary General Meeting and the person elected shall serve for the balance of the term of the former holder and shall be eligible for re-election for the ensuing term.
92. The Hon Secretary shall in each year arrange that a ballot paper listing all validly nominated candidates shall be posted or otherwise sent to each member entitled to vote with instructions on the voting procedure which will be by way of secret postal ballot or by secure remote electronic voting secret ballot. The process shall set out the time limits within which the completed ballot papers must be returned, which time limit will be no less than 2 weeks. The process shall be held such that the completion of the process shall be not less than a week prior to the Annual General Meeting. The process shall not be deemed to be invalid by reason of a member or members not receiving a ballot paper or their returned ballot paper not being received by the MII by the due date.
93. In the event of there not being sufficient nominations to fill the 20 Council seats, the names of those nominated will be proposed for election at the AGM. If there are more candidates than seats available an election will be held at the Annual General Meeting.
- Should vacancies exist after the AGM, the Council may appoint members to fill those seats.
94. The members entitled to vote for Council members, for the President and for the President-Elect at an Annual General Meeting and at any Extraordinary General Meeting are members who have paid up their annual membership fee not less than 28 days prior to the date of the election or meeting as appropriate.

95. Affiliates do not have a vote and may not propose or second members of Council or the President or the President-Elect.
96. Each qualifying member shall have one vote.
97. Members of Council shall be elected for a three-year period. Each year one third of Council Members, up to a maximum of 6, shall retire with the exception of the President, President Elect and Honorary Treasurer and will be entitled to stand for re-election.
98. Council will determine in each year which members should retire by rotation bearing in mind the length of service on Council and any posts held. In the event of a dispute, lots will be drawn.
99. There will be no maximum number of years a person can serve on Council.
100. The Officers and heads of committees shall be elected by the Council for a three year term. Any Officer or head of committee retiring by rotation or otherwise may stand for re-election except for the role of Treasurer who shall be appointed for a maximum of three years, only two of which may coincide with the President's three year term.
101. The President-Elect shall automatically succeed the President at the end of the President's third year of their term in office.
102. An election by the members of the President-Elect shall be held at the AGM held one year before the retirement of the incumbent President and the President-Elect shall hold that office for one year before becoming President at the end of the next following AGM.
103. A candidate for the role of President-Elect must have been a member who has served on the then current Council for at least 9 months immediately prior to the date for nominations and must hold a current Advanced Member Certificate.
104. In each year, other than a year in which a person holds the office of President-Elect, the Council shall elect a Deputy President from among its own elected members. To be eligible to be elected as Deputy President, the person must have served as an elected Council member for the duration of the immediate two previous years. An out-going Deputy President may be re-elected. The position of Deputy President may be held by a person holding another elected or Council position. Should the position of Deputy President become vacant during a year, the Council shall elect an eligible Council member for the balance of the year."

The duties and responsibility of the Deputy President shall be to support and assist the President in the carrying out of her or his functions, to deputising for the President, where appropriate and such other duties and responsibilities as the Council may set from time to time.

105. In the event of a vacancy occurring on Council during the year it may be filled by co-option by Council.

Review of By-Laws

106. These By-Laws will be reviewed by the Council and any proposed changes brought to the Annual General Meeting.